This is why it is important that our software is easy to use and, more importantly, easy to learn. Based on our experience, we have found that a lot of our customers just can't get the software to do what it should be doing. If you are one of those people, then you are going to find this manual very helpful. In other words, the information in this manual is not just for the people that we write our software for, but for all of our customers as well. The purpose of this manual is to explain our software in such a way that you will not have to call us to come and help you. Instead, you will have the ability to do whatever you need to do without having to talk to a sales person. In other words, we have designed this manual to allow you to be your own support department and to handle whatever support issues you may have on your own. If you have any questions, you can call us at 1-800-846-1868. Troubleshooting, so you know when you need us. You may also want to go over the following documents that will be included with the software when it is purchased. These documents are only to help you understand what we expect you to do in order to use our software properly.
