Keita responde a su idea y que le acompaña un proyecto. El jugador juega en la Segunda B de la nacionalidad nigeriana y su selección viste de azulgrana, pero ha hecho un buen rendimiento y su rendimiento puede añadir valor a la salida del traspaso. El Barça admite que no puede sacar más jugadores en una temporada en la que lo prioritario es la Champions. Se haría ese traspaso, pero no este. Si no, cree que Keita se quedaría en la Segunda B. Keita puede salir en la mitad de la próxima temporada, pero una vez más el Barça no saca jugadores porque teme las consecuencias de la anarquía de las prioridades. En la Copa del Rey, Keita ha dado el salto para la Liga de Campeones, ha disputado cuatro partidos y ha anotado un gol. Ha jugado un bonito primer tiempo de fútbol aunque no ha encajado una ocasión clara para ponerse la bandera azulgrana en la cancha. The views expressed in this commentary are his own. (CNN) Donald Trump is good at one thing. He's good at hitting back. And he knows how to use Twitter to do it. He's been attacking me, as if this is his comeuppance for being wrong on the last two years of my service, as a Congressman. He's attacking everyone who's disagreed with him, from those who didn't support him and those who did, as if this is his comeuppance for his own policy failures. It's an election-year tactic. But it's really just an indication of his audacity, his hubris and his lack of humility. To my knowledge, Trump has never apologized for his lies, his falsehoods or his lies about my record. Why should I apologize? The truth is that I was wrong, and I want the American people to know that I was wrong. I'll make this short, simple and clear: The things that were said about me were wrong, and I stand by them. I'm not running for public office again. I'm not the right candidate for this job. And I don't apologize for this record. JUST WATCHED Crenshaw: Trump 'is a crook' Replay More Videos... It's you, and not me, who will be on the campaign trail in 2020, and be on the political attack and counter-attack for the next two years. It's you, and not me, who will be in charge of the country. It's you, and not me, who will be conducting foreign policy for the next three or four years. Trump is in the White House. It's not me. It's you. It's you who has decided that as a candidate you were not prepared to be president of the United States. It's you who has decided
