Install the client software and configuration tool Create all the devices defined earlier (see §5.1) following the same procedure by associating. Now select "Devices" → "Software" → "Client Software" → "Configuration" → "Utilities". Select "Utilities" → "Utilities X". Utilities X displays an XML client configuration file that contains the information the server needs to update the configuration. For each device to be updated, click the "Add" button. The utility will update the configuration for the devices. Follow this procedure for each device that needs to be updated.
