Gamers can create players and teams that look and play like their real life counterparts using the Wide-Run Engine. Players and leagues will be rated on attributes that reflect their performances, including the speed they run, shot power, acceleration, dribbling ability and more. Players can also be added to an existing team in Career Mode. Extensive player progression allows gamers to challenge their ability and earn attributes to create the ultimate player with a new level of control. Skill-specific attributes are developed and players will use the power of progression to unlock more attributes as they improve their play and move up the ranks. "Development is always the toughest part of the game cycle," commented Devin Nash, Executive Producer on FIFA 22. "FIFA is the most-played, most-loved and most-played-by-at-home-on-the-IPAD-or-PS3-syndicate-in-the-world sport, so delivering even more authenticity, detail and more variety of play is something we wanted to achieve with FIFA 22." FIFA 22 is built from the ground up for the next generation of gaming devices with the award-winning Frostbite™ technology. As the most-played sports video game in the world, FIFA is fully integrated with a host of leading platforms and with the rest of EA SPORTS titles. Players can watch simulated matches on a range of connected devices and accessories or access live UEFA Champions League or MLS matches via the FIFA.TV platform. FIFA 22 gives gamers unprecedented access to authentic leagues and environments including Serie A, Bundesliga, Ligue 1, MLS, CPL and APL. Gamers will be able to create and build teams through Career Mode, capture and share memories from the most incredible moments in FIFA's rich history and dive into the minds of leading footballers and coaches to unlock details on their play style with FIFA Trax. FIFA 22 on PlayStation 4, Xbox One, Nintendo Switch, PC and iOS/Android devices. FIFA 22 Play Modes (PlayStation 4, Xbox One and PC) In FIFA 22, play is all about player power. It's what sets the top players apart from the rest. Gamers can change the pace of their matches with "Time of Possession" - an authentic version of FIFA's popular Total Time of Possession (TTP) feature, and control the way the
