Discover the new world of FIFA '22 by playing this video showing FIFA '22 for the first time: * Includes online activation code, EU online activation code, XBOX Live Gold, and Xbox Live Gold only videos. The series kicks off in South Africa this week for the FIFA 20 World Cup™, with additional tournaments in Brazil, USA, Mexico and Germany. Next year's FIFA World Cup™ in 2018 will take place in Russia. FIFA 20 has always offered the best true-to-life gameplay, most natural controls and authentic team and player interactions of any football videogame. In addition, the FIFA '20 Ultimate Team features the largest card collection in franchise history, with more than 2.6 billion possible items to unlock and use to affect gameplay in all competitions. FIFA 20 was built using the new FIFA '20 engine, giving every player on the pitch unique abilities and skills while delivering the most authentic gameplay experience to date. FIFA 20 introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 20 gameplay. FIFA is one of the most popular sports video games on the market today, and the Ultimate Team Mode is the most popular and rewarding way to play. Featuring authentic licenses from around the world, the Ultimate Team allows you to build a dream team by completing challenges, opening packs, and spending skill points you've earned in matches. Compete in iconic game modes like Exhibition, League, Champions League and Online Tournaments. FIFA Online 2 also returns with a fresh and all-new gameplay experience. What's New in FIFA 22? Powered by Football Instantly play with the most authentic license by using a variety of gameplay features. Combining physics and power ratings into one, the new Impact Engine uses a unique injury system to simulate player injury during gameplay. In addition, the new Control and Precision Dribbling Systems improve the ball physics and deliver a more responsive and reactive gameplay experience. New Player Development System Use the new Player Development System to further unlock licenses and earn experience points. Play challenges during training to bring your player to the next level. New Defending System Defending is at the core of the FIFA experience. The new Defending System makes defending more realistic than ever before by effectively assigning defenders to the correct areas of the pitch. With advanced AI, teams try to avoid giving up possession or gaining an advantage by using clever tactical setups. New Ball Physics The new ball physics delivers a more accurate and true-to-life experience, and improves ball movement and accuracy during collisions and while dribbling, while reducing the amount of air drag during flight and dribbling. New Authentic Player Styles Ahead of the World Cup Qualifying and Women's World Cup Qualifying, EA Sports added 27 new athlete and player models from Brazil and 24 new athlete and player models from Argentina. New Player Model In addition to the new Player Styles, EA Sports also added new models of Zinedine Zidane, Neymar Jr, Lionel Messi and Ronaldo. The new Player Models use the most advanced graphics and character animations to deliver the most authentic soccer experience possible. Joining in-game commentary by three-time World Cup Winner Robbie Earle, the new game mode “Face Off” has been built around the pure excitement of two-player competitive gameplay. New AI Motion Engine is 10x faster compared to FIFA 17 FIFA 18 has been built on a brand new engine and players can experience a new AI motion engine that has been ten times faster than its predecessor. The new engine allows players to see all the actions on the pitch, but more importantly, it is this seamless inclusion of all the player movements that allows the game to look so authentic. Wide range of skill moves including More or Less and Skips In FIFA 17, players could only perform one out of several new moves to take advantage of the false eight goalkeeper, such as the floater and the “There and Back”. Now, FIFA 18 introduces a much wider range of new options including More or Less, the “Around the World” and Skips. The “Around the World” move is available to all players in the game and it consists of a short, medium and long travelling shot. Just like regular shots, “Around the World” can be rewarded

What's new:

- FIFA Interactive Player Ratings - “Did you know?” We’re introducing Interactive Player Ratings to keep you informed when a player is facing a ban, or featuring regular. We’ll keep you updated with this information in-game as well as on FIFA.com.
- FIFA Interactive Team Ratings - In an updated Team Ratings system, we’ve added new factors, such as blocking and off-the-ball actions, to provide more information when selecting which clubs to support. With improved AI, improved tackling behaviour, and a reworked injury system, you’ll have more opportunities to progress your team.
- Meet the New Guys: Introducing 27 new male and female faces, including many fresh faces to the existing roster of more than 3,000 players.
